Mr. Jules Hirsch,
Houston, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to application and field notes of four surveys of land in S E part of Harris County, made for you under Act of April 15, 1905, beg to advise that before this office can pass upon the existence or nonexistence of these surveys, that it is necessary that you have the County Surveyor of Harris County furnish, in addition to the plain sketch accompanying these field notes, a certified sketch covering this territory, indicating thereon all original corners found and identified as well as all lines actually run and measured on the ground; giving course and distance of each. Also furnish an explanation and complete report showing how said surveys were made on the ground and what evidence of the original surveys were found on the ground by which same were identified and located.

Upon receipt of which these files will have further attention.

Respectfully,

S.F. 10715 to 18
